DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This two and a half story, three bay log farmhouse is sheathed with composition siding. Its high stone foundations are covered with stucco. The house has a central chimney and an irregular door and window plan with windows being relatively small in relation to wall area. The exterior surfaces of the building including windows, shutters, doors and wall coverings have been modernized and do not reflect the true age of the house. An ell addition extends to the rear. Also present is a spring or wash house, a frame bank barn which could date from the late 19th or early 20th century and related agricultural outbuildings.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

This farm has been in the Wyand family for a number of generations. The log house with its central chimney and small irregular spaced windows could date from the 18th century as suggested by Wyand family tradition. Its form is Germanic and it reflects ethnic 18th century building traditions.
